

I'm Never Gonna See You

Jeannie Seely

I'm here with you
And I'm hearing you
Say it's over now
And you're telling me
This is how it should be
And it'd be better now
I can't see I can't think I can't feel
And it's hard to believe this is real

I'm never gonna see you
I'm never gonna see you again

Don't know what to say
Don't know what to do
There's nothing I can do
Got no place to run
You're the only one I ever ran to
I supposed I'll get through this somehow
Oh, but all i can think of right now

I'm never gonna see you

I'm never gonna see you again

No, I'm never gonna see you again
Oh, I'm never gonna see you again

I'm never gonna see you
I'm never gonna see you again

See you
I'm never gonna see you again
See you, see you
I'm never gonna see you again
I'm never gonna see you again
No, I'm never gonna see you again

I'm never gonna see you
I'm never gonna see you again

I'm never gonna see you
I'm never gonna see you again
