

Never Bring Me Down

Jed Madela

Sitting here alone, I close my eyes
All I hear are whispers in the dark
I'm on the ground waiting for a hand
But it seems it is impossible to stand
I will stand up, open up my eyes and find the light
Somehow, I'll find my way to get through it all
Open up my eyes and find the light
I just have to believe
So tell me "Get up cause you're strong"

I will stand up
And make them see
I'm more than what they think of me
When the world has turned their back on me
I will fly...
And they will never bring me
They will never bring me down

Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)
They will never bring me down...
Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)
They will never bring me down...
Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)
They will never bring me down...
Ohhh...
Say whatever what you want to say
Do whatever what you want to do
There's nothing they can take away from me, no
As long as I know that my heart is true

I will stand up
And make them see
I'm more than what they think of me
When the world has turned their back on me
I will fly...
And they will never bring me
They will never bring me down

Sticks and stones, they'd break my bones
But words they never hurt me
I may bleed and I may bruise
But I'll come out strong, just you wait and see.
Slap my face and hit me hard
I'll come out strong!
I will stand up
And will make them see
I'm more than what they think of me

I will stand up
And make them see
I'm more than what they think of me
When the world has turned their back on me
I will fly...
And they will never bring me
They will never bring me down

Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)

They will never bring me down...
Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)
They will never bring me down...
Ohhh... (Never bring me down...)
They will never bring me down...
Ohhh...
They will never bring me down...
