

Karma

Jedward

All you do is criticize
You're only a pain in the neck
All you do is spit insults
Why make people feel bad?

You should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face
I said you should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face

Yeah you stabbed me in the back but I don't seek revenge
'Cause somewhere down the line karma's gonna find you
You did what you did, it's not the same
Now you better watch out 'cause karma's gonna find you

[?] you tried to erase me
Set up for things [?]
Piece by piece, you want to break me
Been looking for me, I found an escape

You should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face
I said you should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face

Yeah you stabbed me in the back but I don't seek revenge
'Cause somewhere down the line karma's gonna find you
You did what you did, it's not the same
Now you better watch out 'cause karma's gonna find you

All I wanted was a friend
But the only thing you did was lead me down a dead end
I'm not perfect, sure no one is
But what you did, I will never understand

You should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face
I said you should get ready 'cause the day's gonna come
When all the things you did get chucked in your face

Yeah you stabbed me in the back but I don't seek revenge
'Cause somewhere down the line karma's gonna find you
You did what you did, it's not the same
Now you better watch out 'cause karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you

Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
I said karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
I said

Yeah you stabbed me in the back but I don't seek revenge

'Cause somewhere down the line karma's gonna find you
You did what you did, it's not the same
Now you better watch out 'cause karma's gonna find you

Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
(Karma's gonna find you)
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
Karma's gonna find you
