

I've Been Used

Jeff Beck

Sometimes I sit alone and wonder oh darlin'
What happened to the good days
I just can't remember
I said I knew
It couldn't last
Why did it have to end so fast, ooo ooo
I've been used
Misused

If I had the strength I'd say the truth ooo ooo
I can see myself leaving you girl
The warmth has left your lips and you,
You're slipping through my fingertips
I don't know if you can hold on
For awhile oh girl
I've been used
No more I said no more to lose

Sometimes I sit alone and wonder whoa whoa now
What happened to the good days
I just can't remember
I said I knew
It couldn't last
Why did it have to end so fast, oh why
I've been used
Abused yeah
Oooooooooo
