

Cruel

Jeff Bernat

I ain't gonna lie
You been on my mind
I know that it's gonna take some getting used to

And I ain't gonna front
Thought you were the one
Never would've guessed that you would fall through
Baby, 'cause

Each time I tried, girl, you made an excuse
Just tryna avoid it and hidin' the truth
See you would rather run away from it
I just wanted you to say something
Still can't believe you'd do me
Like this

How can you (take him to)
All the places I used to take (you to)?
I thought you were (someone else)
Instead you leave me hanging alone (by myself)
I never thought I'd see the day that you'd be so cruel

Why you playing games?
Wish it was the same
Probably never gonna be what it used to
But I ain't gonna stress
When there's nothin' left
You gon' up and leave actin' all brand new Lady, 'cause

Each time I tried, girl, you made an excuse
Just tryna avoid it and hidin' the truth
See you would rather run away from it
I just wanted you to say something
Still can't believe you'd do me
Like this

How can you (take him to)
All the places I used to take (you to)
I thought you were (someone else)
Instead you leave me hanging alone (by myself)
I never thought I'd see the day that you'd be so cruel

And I don't wanna make things complicated
Gotta let you know all of this time I can't get back from you
I'm someone you'll just get over again
I'm trying hard to move on but

How can you (take him to)
All the places I used to take (you to)?
I thought you were (someone else)
Instead you leave me hanging alone (by myself)

How can you (take him to) (girl, how can you take him to)
All the places I used to take (you to)?
(I thought you were the one for me) I thought you were (someone else) (instead you leave me all alone)

Instead you leave me hanging alone (by myself)
I never thought I'd see the day that you'd be so cruel
