

Pillow Talk

Jeff Bernat

The scent of your perfume, is on my pillow case
The red that's on your lips, is marked up on my face
See, I don't really mind, if you stay at my place
Let's just close the door, 'cause we're free to do whatever, baby

I can tell your mood is to be naughty
Tell me do you like the way I
Kiss, rub on and touch your body
We can show our secrets and turn off the lights
For the rest of the night, for the rest of the night
Love, love, love
Love, love, love

Marks of your physique, imprinted on my sheets
From your head down to your hands
Even way down to your feet
Let's just hit rewind, and do it all again
Girl, come back for more
I ain't even close to being finished

I can tell your mood is to be naughty
Tell me do you like the way I
Kiss, rub on and touch your body
We can show our secrets and turn off the lights
For the rest of the night, for the rest of the night
Love, love, love
Love, love, love

Whether in or out your clothes
Either way your sexy body always glows
When we're at the restaurant
And when you whisper in my ear and say you want me

I can tell your mood is to be naughty
Tell me do you like the way I
Kiss, rub on and touch your body
We can show our secrets and turn off the lights

I can tell your mood is to be naughty
Tell me do you like the way I
Kiss, rub on and touch your body
We can show our secrets and turn off the lights
For the rest of the night, for the rest of the night (Love, love, lov e)
For the rest of our night (Love, love, love) (Woah, oh-oh oh)
Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love
