

Plenty Of Reasons

Jeff Bernat

You just step into the building with your ladies
I can see your pretty brown eyes staring at me, baby
We're probably thinking same thing
Our minds are simply askin'
Do you want it more than me? (More than)
More than more than me

There's a reason why you're glancing
There's no reason we're not dancing
And I'll give you plenty reasons
Why you won't forget tonight (forget tonight)

'Scuse me as I make my way down to the center
Got me, I give up, I confess and surrender

'Cause I
I feel it in my head
I feel it in my heart
I'm feeling it so much I don't know where to start
Just gotta stay sane, ain't gotta be hard
Don't do a thing I'm coming to Where you are

There's a reason why you're glancing
There's no reason we're not dancing
And I'll give you plenty reasons
Why you won't forget tonight (forget tonight)

There's a reason why you're glancing
There's no reason we're not dancing
And I'll give you plenty reasons
Why you won't forget tonight (forget tonight)

There's a reason why you're glancing (why you're glancing)
There's no reason we're not dancing
And I'll give you plenty reasons (plenty reasons)
Why you won't forget tonight (forget tonight)
