

Obnoxious

Jeff Bridges

Turn it up

Oh I was sitting around being obnoxious
I was drinking a little too much
Oh I was thinking about doing another Quaalude
I was talking too much
I thought about passion
About holding back
I went over to the buffet
To get a little too much to eat

Oh I was sitting around feeling obnoxious
I was feeling a little sad
Oh I was sitting around being a bomber
Everyone's good time has to be had
I went to the bathroom
And threw up
I went over to the buffet
To eat a little bit too much

Oh I was sitting around being obnoxious
Thinking of the dinner that I just ate
I was sitting around with my full stomach on Thinking I probably should have given that dinner to you
I ate another Quaalude
Had a little bit more tequila
Then I went all back to the buffet
To eat a little too much food

Oh I was sitting around being obnoxious
I guess I was feeling a little too good
Oh I was sitting around wondering what you thought of me
I guess I was being a little rude
Well I stood up, I asked the question
You smiled, you frowned
You saying I was being a little obnoxious
And then I want a little more food
