

Doubt

Jeff Rosenstock

Speak

Even if it feels weird

Even if it feels weird

To be yourself

Speak

Even if it's hard to

Even if it hurts you

Even if your brain begins to melt

Slow motion breakdown

Pantomime for help

Scream

It doesn't matter anyway

It doesn't matter anyway

So let it out

Scream

Louder than you need to

Loud enough to cut through

Louder than the noise that drowns you out

Slow motion breakdown

Slow motion breakdown

Slow motion breakdown

There's no need to be scared

Nobody knows it's there

When the day stops short and the sun goes down on you

And you didn't get done anything you wanted to

It'd be one thing if it's once or twice

But it's every night your entire life

The redundancy of your POV

Infinite serotonin starving fever dream

Slow motion kill screen

Slow motion kill screen

Slow motion kill screen

There's no need to be scared

Nobody knows it's there

Kill all the doubt or the doubt is never gonna go away

Kill all of the doubt or it'll waste your day

Kill all of the doubt or it'll never go away, way, way

I don't know how to scrape off the dog shit that's stuck on the heart of the fuckin' world!

How to cut loose the doom that's been screwed to the roof of your fuckin' skull!

How to make life the kind where you don't die regretting what you haven't done!

You gotta chill out with the doubt, the doubt, the doubt

You gotta chill out with the doubt, the doubt, the doubt

You gotta chill out with the doubt, the doubt, the doubt

You gotta chill out with the doubt, the doubt, the doubt

You gotta cool it with the doubt
