Baby, I can sing you some of my songs
Say a couple words like they're my poems
Just so you can know how much I long
For your arms
In my arms
Going all the places that you've been to Doing all the things that you're into
I just really wanna try to win you
If you want to

Yeah, I'm trying but I'm getting more dry
You don't even look me back in my eyes
All my love I'm giving, yeah, you don't buy
So I hide
But when I'm with you, yeah, I'm feeling so right
You're the only one who gets me so high
Know I'm never ever leaving your side
Now I won't hide

Cause baby it's, baby it's you
Babe, it's you
All these stars impossible to count
I'll be here 'til all time runs out
Baby, it's you
Baby, it's you
I would die a thousand times
Just so you can feel alright

Baby, baby
I'm crawling, no, I can't walk
I'm falling just for you
All these words that I wrote you
There's nothing I won't do
My heartbeat breaks
Each breath I take is you

Yeah, I'm trying but I'm getting more dry
You don't even look me back in my eyes
All my love I'm giving, yeah, you don't buy
So I hide
But when I'm with you, yea, I'm feeling so right
You're the only one who gets me so high
Know I'm never ever leaving your side
No, I won't hide

Cause baby it's, baby it's you
Babe, it's you
All these stars impossible to count
I'll be here 'til all time runs out
Baby, it's you
Baby, it's you
I would die a thousand times
Just so you can feel alright

Baby it's you
