

Damage Control

Jeff Scott Soto

It's all just so complicated
This fix I've designed
It's ever so constiscating
I'm trying to tell what's on your mind

We all have our ups and downs
But nothing could prepare me
For the way i left you gaggeg and bound
There's no more forgive and forot
I will put it on the line
And turn it all around

Is it enough o rit too much
Resurrect my sanity, trying save my soul
From the rise and fall, I'll take it all
Put aside my vanity, this is damage control

Don't care if I fall to pieces
O rif I come undone
As long as I prove my mening
And make you know I'm chosen one

We all make some pretty dumb mistakes
But the answer's in the way you
Go about the stepping up
There's no more forgive and forot
I will put it the line
Until I've finaly won

Is it enough o rit too much
Resurrect my sanity, trying save my soul
From the rise and fall, I'll take it all
Put aside my vanity, this is damage control

We all have our ups and downs
But nothing could prepare me
For the way i left you gaggeg and bound
There's no more forgive and forot
I will put it on the line
And turn it all around

Is it enough o rit too much
Resurrect my sanity, trying save my soul
From the rise and fall, I'll take it all
Put aside my vanity, this is damage control
