

Mountain

Jeff Scott Soto

There's a man sittin' on a mountain
And he's feeling 10 foot high
Looking 4 a superman to teach him how to fly
To somewhere, where he can hide
Maybe on a mountain, up there in the sky

Looking 4 our savior, 2 save him from his sins
Looking 4 our savior, trying to find his peace
Sittin' on a mountain

There's a man sittin' on a sanctuary
With nothing on his mind
Got nothing but his dignity, he ain't got no dime
He's going nowhere but he doesn't want to leave
Feeling easy cuz he's got his peace

Looking 4 our savior, 2 save him from his sins
Looking 4 our savior, trying to find his peace
Sittin' on a mountain smoking cigarettes and drinking gasoline
Waiting for a superman to save him from within
Sitting on a mountain

Lies- he's seeking more than the truth
Pain - the healing's hurting him now
Rain - time to be free, yeah

There's a man sittin' on a mountain
And he's feeling 10 foot high
Looking 4 a superman to teach him how to fly
There's a man sittin' on a sanctuary with nothing on his mind
Got nothing but his dignity, he ain't got no dime

Looking 4 our savior, 2 save him from his sins
Looking 4 our savior, trying to find his peace
Sittin' on a mountain smoking cigarettes and drinking gasoline
Waiting for a superman to save him from within
Sitting on a mountain

Sitting on a mountain
Who needs a fucking mountain?
