

The Red Brick

Jeff Tweedy

My lonely said to me
Love won't show
It's a cold case
You're never going to close
Oh I could never let it go
Oh I could never let it go
So I drank myself
Back into your life
And I cried
On the yellow telephone
Oh I could never let it go
Oh I could never let it go
Then I aimed my scope
Out a broken window
I could feel it in my bones
Oh I could never let it go
Oh I could never let you go
