

Thunk

Jefferson Airplane

Sittin' around thinkin' thinkin' and a thinkin' and it ain't doin' me no good well I thunk and I thunk couldn't think of anything better I tried and I tried tryin' ain't doin' me no good I write choo everyday, what could be my very last letter come what may I say thinkin' ain't doin' me no good thinkin' ain't doin' me no good people thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, no good

I want to know, if everything that's sung will remain within the structure of a person whose mind I wish to claim please don't say that wantin' you won't do me no good please oh please don't say wantin' you won't wantin' you won't do me no good wantin' you won't do me no good woman wantin' you won't do me no good, no good well I thunk thunk thunk thunk a lot about it realized my thunk is nuthin' but a lot of funk bunk down on in my place only a dream (hum)

only a dream (hum)

thinkin' ain't doin' me no good no thinkin' ain't doin' me no good no people thinkin' ain't doin' me no good no good
