Arrow

Jeffrey Lewis

Time flies like an arrow baby in a wheelbarrow swaying where th e wind blows static on the radio now.
Bats eat fireflies look at how the time flies baby in a wheelba rrow static on the radio now.
Stayed up all night looking at the moonlight,

saw another bat fly and a firefly die,
no more grapes left, no more tapes left,
no more time left no more space left,
I think that the DJ left his booth,
I'm staring at the roof and there's static on the radio now.

Time flies like an arrow, I will be a man tomorrow the world is quiet there's a rainbow on the TV now.
I will stay awake the tooth fairy wont take all my teeth away a rainbow on the TV now.
Take my teeth to the cemetery,
don't walk up the spiral stairway,
monkeys and babies are scary,
my mom is not the tooth fairy,
I think that the DJ left his booth,
I'm staring at the roof and there's static on the radio now.

There are rainbows, There are daisies,
sweet old ladies, bats and babies,
There are no babes in wheelbarrows, no tooth fairies, no tomorr ows.
Wheres my past and wheres my future?
When did the DJ leave his booth,
When did the wheelbarrow fall off the roof,
and where did the tooth fairy put my tooth?
Time flies like an arrow, I will be a man tomorrow, world is qu iet and theres static on the radio, I will stay awake the tooth won't take all my teeth away static on the radio.
I think the DJ left his booth I'm staring at the roof and there
's static on the radio now.

And I don't fall asleep, I ascend to it.
