

Ready For Your Love

Jeffrey Osborne

Ooh, yeah, girl

All I do is think about you, baby
(Baby)
Every mornin' every night
(Every single night)
Ready, yes, I'm ready for your lovin'
(Mm-hmm, girl)
So get your lovin' ready for mine

I been trying to reach you, girl
Haven't taken time to relax, no
I been gone for a long while
But, baby, now I'm back, yes, sir

You are all I been thinking 'bout
Mornin', noon and night, baby
And I knew I would find you, girl
No matter what the price

Since I left you, girl
I been around the world
Learning at the cost of life's expense
But now I plainly see
That what you gave to me
Was more than I could ever comprehend, then...
All I do is think about you, baby
(Oh, baby)
Every mornin' every night
(Every single every night)
Ready, yes, I'm ready for your lovin'
(Hey, yeah, now)
So get your lovin' ready for mine

If you just give e half a chance
Let me show you just how I feel, baby
I would only be good to you
And, baby, that's for real

Since I left you, girl
I been around the world
Learning at the cost of life's expense
But now I plainly see

That what you gave to me
Was more than I could ever comprehend, then...

But I'm older and wiser now
And I know what's best for myself, baby
And I'd rather be with you, girl
Than anybody else, oh...

I'm erected for your love, baby
So come on, girl, come on, now
Oh...
All I do is think about you, baby
(Oh, baby)

Every mornin' every night
(Every, every single night, girl)
Ready, yes, I'm ready for your lovin'
(Oh, yeah, baby)
So get your lovin' ready for mine
(And I'm ready, ready, ready for your love, baby)

All I do is think about you, baby
(Hey, baby)
Every mornin' every night
(Every, every single night, girl)
Ready, yes, I'm ready for your lovin'
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, baby)
So get your lovin' ready for mine
(Girl, I'm ready, ready, ready for your love, baby)

All I do is think about you, baby
(Hey, baby, baby)
Every mornin' every night
(Every single night, girl)
Ready, yes, I'm ready for your lovin'
(Oh, I'm ready, baby)
So get your lovin'
Said, I'm ready for your love
For your love, for your love, baby
