

Your Lover

Jeffrey Osborne

There's something bout the way you move
I just can't take my eyes off you
Who am I to say 'cause I've lost my way
You've got me so turnt up yes you do

There's something bout the way you touch
That absolutely thrills me much
Who am I to judge, 'cause I'm lost in love
So my opinion doesn't mean much

But I'll always be your love
Helplessly your lover
Guaranteed your lover
You can always
Welcome to meet your lover
There will be no other
'Cause no body loves
The way you do

There's something bout the way you smile
That absolutely drives me wild
Who am I to speak
'Cause you know I'm weak
My heart just melts when you smile at me

There's something bout the way you kiss
Oh, no one else can kiss like this
What am I to do, I'm a fool for you
And foolish me I just can't resist

So I'll always be your love
Helplessly your lover
Guaranteed your lover
You can always
Welcome to meet your lover
There will be no other
'Cause no body loves
The way you do

Always be your love
Helplessly your lover
Guaranteed your lover
You can always
Welcome to meet your lover
There will be no other
'Cause no body loves
The way you do

Always, always
I want you to run to me yeah
Wanna hold you in my arms
Keep ya oh so safe and warm, oh-oh, oh-oh

[?] always be your lover (Always)
Helplessly your lover
Always

Welcome to meet your lover
There will be no other (Alright)

I want you to run to me
I need you to run to me
I'd love you to run to me baby (always)
Always, hm
I won't be your lover, be your lover
Be your lover
