

Something Big

Jekalyn Carr

I'm grateful for this place, but I won't get complacent, I won't get comfortable, I won't get settled here, Because I know that you've got bigger for me, so today I say by faith

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

I know it is, I feel it is, I know it is

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

I know it is, I feel it is, I know it is

I'm in a great place, but the dreams you show me are bigger than here

I realize that I can't stay this size, for every season there is a higher dimension

I won't always be in this place, so today I say by faith

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

I know it is, I feel it is.

Yes something big, something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

Now all over the world let's make this declaration say.

I declare I am going higher, I declare I'm increasing, I declare I'm getting stronger, and my head will be down no longer.

I declare that it's getting better and I declare that it's getting greater, and I declare that I'm moving Lord I declare by faith

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

I know it is yes, I feel it is.

Say something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

Let's lift up our declaration again everybody say it.

I declare I am going higher, I declare I'm increasing, I declare I'm getting stronger, and my head will be down no longer.

I declare that it's getting better and I declare that it's getting greater, Lord I declare that I'm moving and I declare by faith

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen to me

I believe that this is my season for something big

Something big is about to happen, something big's about to happen

en to me
I believe that it's right around the corner
Yes something big. something big is about to happen, something
big's about to happen to me
I understand that my visions are not in vain.
Yes something big, something big is about to happen, something
big's about to happen to me
I believe that my dreams are not in vain
Something big, something big is about to happen, something big'
s about to happen to me
Oh I declare it say something big, something big is about to ha ppen, something big's about to happen to me something big, some thing big, something big.
