

Decide

Jelani Aryeh

Comfort me, I feel see through
Stars ain't out yet again
Am I waisted on the street I roam?
Couldn't make sense of anything I've known

Can't pretend that I'm alright
But for my friends, I'll survive

I try and try to knock me down
I try and I try to knock me down

Meet me here and I'll stay by your side all night
Surrendering one more vice will suit you right
Did we fuel the fire on our own?
You can write desire but you can't write wrongs

Can't pretend that I'm alright
But for my friends, I'll survive

I try and try to knock me down
I try and I try to knock me down
I try and try to knock me down
I try and I try to knock me down

Decide, decide
Right now it's do or die
Decide, decide
Right now it's do or die

I try and try to knock me down
I try and I try to knock me down
I try and try to knock me down
I try and I try to knock me down
