

The Garden

Jelani Aryeh

Don't hide the night from me
Can't wait a century
Tongue tied unevenly
Simply yours, mindlessly
Heaven fell down on me
Deadly spell rain on me

Down, down

Once I get you close, I won't let go
Hearts don't break, they all just turn to stone
Deep inside your garden, lost myself, I lost control
I don't want nobody, 'cause I bit the fruit, I won't let go

Sinking in my seat, I'd watch all gravity retreat
Voices whispering, and tell me no more insecurity
Phone stuck in my side, it feels so good to let it be
No regrets to dream about, just fall right down on me

Down, down

Once I get you close, I won't let go
Hearts don't break, they all just turn to stone
Deep inside your garden, lost myself, I lost control
I don't want nobody, 'cause I bit the fruit, I won't let go

Once I get you close, I won't let go
Hearts don't break, they all just turn to stone
Deep inside your garden, lost myself, I lost control
I don't want nobody, 'cause I bit the fruit, I won't let go
