

Burning

Jelly Roll

I've got violence on the brain
You know I've learned to love the taste
Because it numbs the bit of pain inside of me
Where there's smoke, you know, there's fire
When there's a fire, there's a liar
Saying there's no hope to heal your broken dreams

Singing, "Oh Lord, won't you show me?
Show me there's some other way"

Don't leave me burning here
In the fire all by myself, oh
God knows I'm hurting here
When I'm crying out for help
Don't leave me beggin' for my life
'Cause I'm runnin' out of time
I'm just trying to find some kind of way to stay between the lines
I'm burning here
I'm burning here

With every high there comes a crash
With every love that doesn't last
It leaves you falling through the cracks under the ground
And all those wasted second chances
Keep you searching for the answers
Turns out shame is just another shade of doubt

Singing, "Oh Lord, won't you show me?
Show me there's some other way"

Don't leave me burning here
In the fire all by myself, oh
God knows I'm hurting here
When I'm crying out for help
Don't leave me beggin' for my life
'Cause I'm runnin' out of time
I'm just trying to find some kind of way to stay between the lines
I'm burning here
I'm burning here

I'm burning here
I'm burning here
