

Liar

Jelly Roll

I, I let you drive around my mind
I can't count the times you made me feel like I'm nothing
Played me like a fool
Like a fool

Saying, "Drink another whiskey
Pop another pill
Money makes you happy
Heaven isn't real
You won't find nobody to love because your heart's too broke"
Now I know

You ain't nothing but a liar
Yeah, I walked right out the fire
Yeah, you try to keep me down
Try to put me underground
But I'm only going higher
I can hear you in my head, in my bed, when I'm dreaming
You try to be my friend, but you're blowing smoke
Oh, but now I ain't scared of telling you where you can go
'Cause I know you're nothing but a liar

You burned me one too many times
Like a devil in disguise, hiding your true colors
Just leave me alone
Keep leading me on

Saying, "Drink another whiskey
Pop another pill
Money makes you happy
Heaven isn't real
You won't find nobody to love because your heart's too broke"
Now I know

You ain't nothing but a liar
Yeah, I walked right out the fire
Yeah, you try to keep me down
Try to put me underground
But I'm only going higher
I can hear you in my head, in my bed, when I'm dreaming
You try to be my friend, but you're blowing smoke
Oh, but now I ain't scared of telling you where you can go
'Cause I know you're nothing but a liar

If I was doing what you do
Then you would swear I poisoned you

You're nothing but a liar (Liar)
Yeah, I walked right out the fire (Fire)
Yeah, you try to keep me down
Try to put me underground
But I'm only going higher
I can hear you in my head, in my bed, when I'm dreaming
You try to be my friend, but you're blowing smoke
Oh, but now I ain't scared of telling you where you can go
'Cause I know you're nothing but a liar
