

Never Changing

Jelly Roll

And God knows I need him, I need him more than I ever needed
And I'm drivin' down my lane, the road to riches and the fame
And just the other day, my demons made me pray
So I prayed but my problems stayed the same
If all I've ever really known is pain
Then tell me why it hurts that there's a change

And I'm still pill poppin' and liquor drinkin'
One day we'll be rich and famous
God knows we ain't never changin'
God knows we ain't never changed
Still love us when the beat is bangin'
God knows we gon' keep it gangster
God knows we ain't never changin'
Lord knows we ain't never changed
Pill poppin' and liquor drinkin'
One day we'll be rich and famous
God knows we ain't never changin'
God knows we ain't never changed
Still love us when the beat is bangin'
God knows we gon' keep it gangster
God knows we ain't never changin'
Lord knows we ain't never changed

Middle Fingers to all the skeptics
Full of shit so I hope they septic
Always been a little reckless just genetics
Never ever really been accepted
Tom and Jerry went to Texas
Ally cats will never be domestic
Dope money still fund my records
Voice of my kind I been elected
Been respected, still connected
Got it on my own not sympathetic
Obstacles come unexpected
But stayin' broke is just so pathetic
My perspective when you go for broke
And turn nothin' into somethin' is so majestic
Shots fired they pinned a record
But I'm me so I never be apologetic
Get rejected and get up and press it so impressive
Fought Addiction and depression success from recession
Conspiracy with no possession yeah I learned a lesson
Changed my life but ain't changed me my G is not in question

And I'm still pill poppin' and liquor drinkin'
One day we'll be rich and famous
God knows we ain't never changin'
God knows we ain't never changed
Still love us when the beat is bangin'
God knows we gon' keep it gangster
God knows we ain't never changin'
Lord knows we ain't never changed

Wake up and I go and get it
Whole city they know I'm with it
Home city know you try me

We gon' shake it like it's got a motor in it
Swear to God my bitches so bad now I don't notice bitches
And we fuck a different bitch every day
Swear to God we don't know them bitches
Know the business I grind to
Know the business I grind to
I remember when the trap had traffic
Like the Chick-Fil-A drive through
Call me a fat asshole
My bad ass have bad hoes
Mean while they have Struggle on the news
Lookin' like the white El Chapo
We gon' turn this to a horror movie in a hurry
And the clip on this bitch is the extended version
Bad bitch in the front, fuck three bitches at once
They gon' keep gassin' me up, and they gon' get hit with a pop

And just the other day, my demons made my pray
So I prayed but my problems stayed the same
If all I've ever really known is pain
Then tell me why it hurts to make change

And I'm still pill poppin' and liquor drinkin'
One day we'll be rich and famous
God knows we ain't never changin'
God knows we ain't never changed
Still love us when the beat is bangin'
God knows we gon' keep it gangster
God knows we ain't never changin'
Lord knows we ain't never changed
Pill poppin' and liquor drinkin'
One day we'll be rich and famous
God knows we ain't never changin'
God knows we ain't never changed
Still love us when the beat is bangin'
God knows we gon' keep it gangster
God knows we ain't never changin'
Lord knows we ain't never changed
