

I wake up and welcome another day
Singing outside makes me smile
I used to sleep in 'til noon would break
But now this is my favorite time

I walk out the door
And there's strangers there
They wave at me, I wave back now
I used to look down and pretend to search
For the keys that I left in the house
I've been turned inside out

I'm free, free to feel loved, I'm flyin'
Free, free to give up on tryin'
Finally forgiven myself
Helplessly asking for help
I'm free

I take a drive, the top is down
I feel the breeze
I turn up my favorite song
I used to always have somewhere to be

Now I see that I'm already home
I'm already home

I'm free, free to feel loved, I'm flyin'
Free, free to give up on tryin'
Finally forgiven myself
Helplessly asking for help

I'm learning to let it go
Letting this life unfold
Here is the one and the me
I'm giving it all away
It wasn't mine anyway
Here you go, this is me
I'm free

Free to feel loved, I'm flyin'
Free, free to give up on tryin'
Free, free to give up on tryin'
Finally forgiven myself
Helplessly asking for help
Finally forgiven myself, I'm free
I'm free
