

Breathing Fire

Jenna Davis

Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh
Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons

I wonder who froze the river
Trying to clear my mind
Look at the life we're living
When did your eyes cool mind

Seeing fire in the sky-y-y
Rising higher through the nigh-igh-ight
Buildings burning everywhere
Not my problem I don't care
Unless the wop comes knocking at my door

Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh
Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh

Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire, fire

Painted the sky with silver
Covering up the flames
Tried to suppress the shiver
When I see that I'm too late

Seeing fire in the sky-y-y
Rising higher through the nigh-igh-ight
Buildings burning everywhere
Not my problem I don't care
Unless the wop comes knocking at my door

Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh
Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh

Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire

Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh
Everybody, everybody sees the smoke, oh, oh, oh
Nobody, nobody sees the dragons, oh, oh, oh

Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire
Breathing, breathing fire, fire
