

Luckier

Jenna Davis

Last night, in a vulnerable moment
Went to your page 'cause I saw that you posted
I'll admit that I got jealous as hell
It said Love of My Life in the caption
And I'm wondering, when did it happen
That the love of your life turned to someone else?

Oh oh whoa oh
That used to be me
Oh oh whoa oh
But it didn't take long to see

That I got for now and she gets forever
I got for worse and she gets for better
I loved you first but what we were
Is stuck in the past and she gets your future
I shouldn't be comparing me to her
But God it hurts that I got lucky
But she got luckier

Don't get me wrong, I'm doing good, doing better
But I heard you say you're happier than ever
Might as well stick a knife right in my back
I saw a picture of you up in Boulder
She was smiling, her head on your shoulder
Now she's living the life I used to have
It made me mad

That I got for now and she gets forever
I got for worse and she gets for better
I loved you first but what we were
Is stuck in the past and she gets your future
I shouldn't be comparing me to her
But God it hurts that I got lucky
But she got luckier

Luckier, luckier, luckier
Lucky her, lucky her, lucky her
Luckier, luckier, lucky her

I got for now and she gets forever
I got for worse and she gets for better
I loved you first but what we were
Is stuck in the past and she gets your future
I shouldn't be comparing me to her
But God it hurts that I got lucky
But she got luckier
