Jennie

I woke up like this, feeling like a weight just lifted
I don't know what it is but I swear to God I love this shit
Look in the mirror, there ain't nothing clearer
So take off your filter, bitch
What you gon' do with that? Yeah, yeah

Anything I want is in my reach, yeah, I like that Unapologetic when I creep, yeah, it's like that All the flashing lights, they follow me, yeah, I like that

Full throttle crashing through the gate when I ride out
Quick to judge a book by the front, inside out
Never cared what you thought then, why should I now?

Undress me on the way to perfection, yeah
Underneath, finally found what's been missing
When I take it off, I know I love me more
With no filter, filter, oh
With no filter, filter, oh
No filter, uncensored when I take it all off
I love me more with no filter

I found it under it all
Simple and so beautiful
Go 'head and judge me
Nothing can touch me
When I take it off

Undress me on the way to perfection, yeah
Underneath, finally found what's been missing
When I take it off, I know I love me more
With no filter
With no filter

With no filter, filter, oh
With no filter, filter, oh
No filter, uncensored when I take it all off
I love me more with no filter
