Jennifer Chung

Sucker For Smiles

CHORUS: Don't look my way Don't you dare gimme that face 'Cause behind those pretty brown eyes I'm sure that there are many thoughts comprised I've played many games before too Way before I even met you I know what kinda guy you are I know your style 'Cause I'm a sucker for smiles

Today you caught, caught me by surprise A confidence that could lead me to my very demise I held onto my heart, the one that's been wounded before Held it's glass like fragile essence Can't be damaged anymore

CHORUS

I'm happy where I am, even without you around Don't need some mere mortal love 'Cause without it, I'm still heaven bound Though I like the sound of it You possibly being my man Gonna stop these thoughts, distractions While I'm here, while I still can

CHORUS

I've heard it all before All of those sweet things All of the tricky lines And all of the lying schemes I've heard it all before All of those sweet things All of the tricky lines And all of the lying schemes

CHORUS

'Cause I'm a sucker for smiles

I've heard it all before All of those sweet things So can I trust that you will not be just as mean?
