

The One (Version 2)

Jennifer Lopez

I just wanna be... I just wanna be...

Taking away
The fact that I care about you
It's just your way, so sweet
Everything seems right around you
Did you know
That you have this calming way about you
In your touch
And I wanna know if I could be your girl

You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you

I'm happy to say
In a lot of ways you've changed me
Makes me smile
When you said you were glad the day you found me
I'm wishing away
Any harm that might ever find you
Heaven knows
I really feel, I'll always be your girl

You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you

The one who puts her arms around you
The one who lays her head beside you
The one who listens when you need it
When no one else sees, I can see it (your girl)
The one who knows when something's wrong
The one who knows your favorite song (your girl)
The one who all your family loves
The one you place no one above

You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you (your girl)
You are everything
And everything is you

I'll always be, your girl...

The one who's true to you, and down for ya
The one who makes you smile, and laughs with ya
The one who holds you down, I'm there for ya

The one (the one)... The one (the one)...

The one who's true to you, and down for ya
The one who makes you smile, and laughs with ya
The one who holds you down, I'm there for ya

The one (the one)... The one (the one)...

The one who's true to you
The one who makes you smile
The one who holds you down

The one (the one)... The one (the one)...

The one who's true to you
The one who makes you smile
The one who holds you down

The one (the one)... The one (the one)...

I can be anything you need...
