Chaser

Jennifer Nettles

I wanna be the one
Not the one after the one
That breaks your heart
I wanna be the fire
Not the cool
That soothes your tongue
After the spark

Don't wanna be an after thought Don't wanna be the aftershock When you've had double shot Of her

I wanna be the taste you crave Not just some call you make When you're dying of thirst

And I know, I know, I know, I know
That I don't, I don't, I don't
Ever learn

And if you go, you go, you go, you go But I wanna be the one

That makes you burn And never burn out Wanna make you burn All the way down Are you feeling me now

I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Standing in line waiting on my turn I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Wanna be the one that makes you burn

I wanna be the name
The only name that's on your lips
When you're alone
I wanna be the first
Not the next one on the list
In your phone

Don't wanna be the old fallback
The one you never did call back
Even though I waited all night long
Straight up or on the rocks
Don't wanna take the edge off
When the drink is too strong

And I know, I know, I know, I know
That I don't, I don't, I don't
Ever learn

And if you go, you go, you go, you go But I wanna be the one

That makes you burn

And never burn out Wanna make you burn All the way down Are you feeling me, feeling me

Burn and never burn out
(I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser)
(Chaser)
Are you feeling me burn
(I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser)
(Chaser)
All the way down
(I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser)
(Chaser)
Are you feeling me now

I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Standing in line waiting on my turn I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Wanna be the one that makes you burn

Burn, burn, like an old scotch whiskey Drink it down slow, pour it all night long Burn like a heat everytime you kiss me Like these words pouring off my tongue
