

Hell and Back Again

Jennifer Nettles

Well I ain't Johnny and you ain't June
But I'd go to hell and back for you
I'd fight a band of demons in a ring of fire
And come back singing like an angel choir
There ain't nothing that I wouldn't do
I'd go to hell and back for you

Well I'll never learn and you'll never change
Cause I love the burn and you love the flames
But I'll never let you see me cry
And if you do I'll say it's smoke in my eyes
There ain't nothing that I wouldn't do
I'd go to hell and back for you

We will live and love and sin
Make the devil laugh again
If we stumble in the dark we know
We still share one heart

I'd stand up tall like a man in black
I'll take 39 lashes on my back
Break down the walls of this fiery jail
And I'll walk these hills in a long black veil
There ain't nothing that I wouldn't do
I'd go to hell and back for you

(Na na na na na na na...)
I'd go to hell and back for you
I'd go to hell and back
For you I'd go
For you I'd go

I ain't Johnny and you ain't June
But I'd go to hell and back for you
