Don't tell me that you don't like anything about me I've seen it in your eyes that look, you think that I don't notice Don't hide what you feel inside Baby, I can feel the same What you do is up to you So maybe you should try again or maybe you just fade away, yeah Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought we'd get this far Betcha never, never ever betcha never thought you'd touch my heart Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought that I'd surrender Betcha never thought that you would ever get with me I betcha never thought of that Don't you be afraid to try 'cause you don't even know me Why don't you read between the lines? You know how it should be Don't hide what you feel inside Baby, I could feel the same What you do is up to you so maybe you should try again or maybe you just fade away Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought we'd get this far Betcha never, never ever betcha never thought you'd touch my heart Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought that I'd surrender Betcha never thought that you would ever get with me I betcha never thought of that I betcha never, never ever I betcha never, betcha never thought of that Maybe you should try again Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought we'd get this far Betcha never, never ever betcha never thought you'd touch my heart Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought that I'd surrender Betcha never thought that you would ever get with me I betcha never thought of that Betcha never, betcha never Betcha never thought we'd get this far Betcha never, never ever betcha never thought you'd touch my heart

Betcha never, betcha never

Betcha never thought that I'd surrender
Betcha never thought that you would ever get with me
I betcha never thought of that
