The frozen times speak to me
When I'm walking alone
About the day I tried to smile and act like I was fine

My eyes reflected in the mirror
The look I'm giving myself is so unfamiliar
Feels like I'm living as someone
Who isn't me

With shy words
With warmer words
If you called my name
I would show you everything
I would tell you
I would walk with you
Wherever the end may be

The me I'm hiding inside

Dazzles through you today
Sometimes, call my name
So I can shine on you

With shy words
With warmer words
If you called my name
I would show you everything
I would tell you
I would walk with you
Wherever the end may be

Even if I walk on a path without you
Feels like you'll be there at the end
All the paths I walked on without you
I'm trying to go back

As long as you love me
As long as you miss me
Not just anyone
But one person for you
I don't want to hide any longer
Now I'm going to you

As long as you love me
As long as you miss me
I want to look at the same place
Put on a smile together
And with good thoughts
Call out
Your name
