Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask for more
Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask for more

Bring that back, spend it on me
Like you one and only, you can't wait to show me
I'm waiting to see, pussy fat like Tony
Macking in that 'roni, I got what you wanted
My lil' freak, she got her own, ain't no sugar baby
Ain't no need for saving, ain't no if or maybes
I wanna see two at a time, keep it popping, baby
She lose her top while we driving my Mercedes
I'm watching her

Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask-

My left pocket full of blue hundreds
My right pocket got a gun in it
I'm fucking it up in the club and I'm running it up
And they wanna fuck with me, stuck with me, in love with me
Baby girl, you so pretty, I'm creeping up out of the woods
I gotta give love to my hood and my city, I got what you need
Girl, I got what you want, just throw it back on me
I feel like Marshall Faulk, baby
I got what you need, I got what you want
Lil' baby girl, I told you this shit ain't your fault
Girl, you know it ain't your fault

Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask for more
Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask for more
Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
All these shopping sprees, put it all on me, babe
Wouldn't mean a thing, she ask for more
Taught you everything, gave you what you wanted
Give her everything, she ask for more
