

Silence Me

Jeremy Camp

The many worlds i speak i turn around them all
(i turn them all)
Talking about myself and all the things i need
I need to be patient and listen to your voice
Help me to know you, help me to here.

Silence me so i can hear you
Open up my ears so i can hear you

Help my actions speak louder than my words
To live my life out loud about the love between you and me
(between you and me)
I need to be and i know that you are guide
Help me to hear you, help me to hear

Silence me so i can hear you
Open up my ears so i can hear you

Silence me, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
