What It Means

Jeremy Camp

I've been here a thousand times before Face down on the floor Wondering how I even reached this place again

But, You have shown so endlessly, how Your love pours over me No picture can re-create the beauty that I see

Show me what it means, to live my life a sacrifice If only I would realize how much it took to pay the price I know I'd always give, everything to You

I want this world to see Your perfect majesty Reflecting from my life this brilliant poetry

Written all over this place The signs of all creation that You breathed Words can't even state how much You mean to me

I want to face my very crime Of not giving all of mine But I can feel the hope You bring to me
