

Threw myself on the floor
Chasing time at the door
Half-past nine, self-control
Place your heart on the go

[ Chorus ]

Nights will mourn
And I'm sleeping on the better debt of day
Like the rising off
They won't need me till tomorrow

Night that claims the sky
Forever dreams of a better day

Half-past nine, rise at four
A pain in my heart after all
Casting and iron, self-control
A pain in my heart after all
Don't let go

( Chorus )

Night that claims the sky
Forever dreams of a better day
And you say you'll be around
