

Tatseo Show

Jeremy Enigk

In here I sit and talk about
The world we said, I'd figure out
Thought I was growing and you say, "Love me"
The dreams really were too cruel to speak

Hello to the world
These days will rise
On a wave of imagination we fly

We'll talk about a new revolution
Sing songs fair, too cruel to handle
But we'll see where it goes
The king's empire of the tatseo show

Hello to the world
These days will rise
On a wave of imagination flying

The bells ring out into the crowd
