

Loving U Was Wrong

Greene, Jeremy

Sometimes, it's best to let go then to hold on knowing she was never good for you from the beginning...

Loving u was wrong, I just hate the fact that u don't know that you were wrong but I hate u more than I hate myself. Loving u was wrong, I just hate the fact that u don't know that u were wrong but I loved u more than myself...

Hurts with the heart that's bleeding slowly. So many lonely sleepless nights I going through hell but convinced u love me. But never heart proven no matter how I try. The way u talk to me but still I say I love u, I'm ashamed u can see it in my eyes. m a mama always told me to respect a woman but what am I to do when her parents would not try?

[Verse 2: Drake]

Uhh Trying not to over think only cause I drove and I had a lot to drink. I wanted it blue but u said we got to paint it pink. And it's pieces of your hair still sitting in my sink. Need Yo u still got underwear still sitting in the dryer. How come everytime that your suspicious I'm a liar. U stand out I can hear u whistle in a choir need dats the only reason your the misses I admire. Damn tell me what I'm gon do, since everything that I'm tryna forget is all true, me and all your main girls get along 2. I would take my last dollar out and bet it on u, but uhh u see the same one I'm missing is basically the reason I became something different it's just that I remember me before and if u could the same baby then we'd be for sure...

[Bridge:]

So beg, leave it to a [?] to break my heart and it wasn't suppose to be no it wasn't suppose to be, no it wasn't suppose to be eeeeeee yea yea...

Haha u see I moved on need u can't hold me no more, u noe who u are... Haha I don't really like u no more, so deal with it...
