

Down South

Jeremy Loops

I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to but it's good to see you
Tell me how you're doing
I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to
Anyway

And in the light of day
I didn't notice
And everything she was
I didn't show this
And in the light of day
I didn't know you
But I wanted you to stay and I didn't wanna go
I wouldn't take it away from you, no no

I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to but it's good to see you
Tell me how you're doing
I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to
Anyway

I could of told you I was shining
You wanted to hear it, eyes
I'm seeing it all clear
You seem to be surprised
Remember how we say
Someday we'll set sail
It took me so much, to get to where we are
And right now you are
Slowing me down down, slowing me down down
Trying to get up, you supposed to hold me down
It's different, ambiguous it may seem
The light shines in the dark
I couldn't see
And in the light of day
Everything we dreamed, I didn't notice
It's how you react, it's the kinda dream
(And everything she was I didn't show this)
But I'm
Tearing up these scenes [x2]
Time it waits for no one, it took me
Twenty six years to feel this something
And I'll be damned if I let it slip away

I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to but it's good to see you
Tell me how you're doing
I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to

Anyway

I've been lying awake
Up all night
On these higher stakes
In disguise
I've been dying to wake up and find
I've been low
In the light of day
With open eyes
In the time it takes
To decide
That I wanted you to stay and
I didn't wanna go
I wouldn't take it away from you no no

I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to but it's good to see you
Tell me how you're doing
I didn't want to leave you down south
When I said that I will call you, squeeze you a little bit of love
I didn't want to
Anyway
