

Runaway Kids

Jeremy Loops

We are, we are one, we are one
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
We are, we are one under the sun
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want

Maybe there's something I don't understand
It's been a long day in this hideaway
And since I've been kicking around
Just wondering if something might change
And you can call it our condition, it's all
Just primal ways in a modern age
And when all the crimes unfold
It'll be a long day

We are, we are one, we are one
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
We are, we are one under the sun
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want

Yeah, and what if we had wings to fly
And what if we could run at the speed of light
And what if there were ways to save today's crace
And you woke up with the strength to fight

Another season floats by
The system's gonna fall
By the way, [?]

And you can call it our condition, it's all
Just primal ways in a modern age
And when all the crimes unfold
It'll be a long day

We are, we are one, we are one
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
We are, we are one under the sun
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want (Eh)

Wasted on the young youth, the old money
I'm [?] funny
Can I say, wait, no please don't preach
[?] on my darlings' tweets and feeds
But you're playing the part in charades though
Playing the, playing the part in charades though
But this is no longer a game though
And I am no, I am no longer afraid, no

It's been a long day
But I still believe in
It's been a long day
But I still believe in

We are, we are one, we are one
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
We are, we are one under the sun
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want

We are, we are one, we are one
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
We are, we are one under the sun
And we know just what we want
We know just what we want
