

See, I Wrote It for You

Jeremy Loops

Oh, oh, oh...

Now I've been warm and I've been cold
It's been drifting in my bones
It's been a long, long year
Another time, another place
It's been happening every day
And it's just good to have you here

See, you know some things
And you'll stretch them o-o-on
What you didn't, I know
That you did and I sa-a-w
And what you see that I didn't do
Now, what you told me to

You watch out, go!

See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now

I wrote it for you, for you and you and you and you and you and you and you and you, ohh...

Find me below, my sheets are all I need
To make my smile
It's been going all slow
And this still takin' a while
With the stead in my style
I've been falling, I'm so far from home

You sit and you walk and you take a stroll
Down the way to the sun
So close to your heart
And it will take you alive
It will burn you up inside
But you know there's no going home

See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you

Cause you told me to...
Cause you told me to...
Cause you told me...
Cause I told you to...

(See, I wrote it for you)
(See, I wrote it for you)
(See, I wrote it for you)
(See, I wrote it for you)
(See, I wrote it for you)

See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now

You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now

See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
See, I wrote it for you, you're singing now
You see, I wrote it for you, you're singing now

Cause you're singing now
You're singing now...
