

Bye Bye

Jeremy Passion

Dearest lonely
My old friend
Messaged you would hold me
I ain't gon' pretend that I didn't want you here
When I felt like no one cared, you were there

Dear depression
How you been?
Heavy like a blanket, all tucked in
I could stay in the dark
Hiding my broken heart
But then a light came on

Staying comfortable was a lie I've been sold
And what I thought was love, I was just cold

Think it's time to say
Bye, bye
This one last time, too late
Not gonna change my mind
Get outta my way
Moving forward, no rewind, too late
No more, baby, no way
It's time to say
Bye, bye

Dear anxiety
Let me be
All the things I should've done, could've done
You won't get the best of me this time
I was made for more by design

Sick and tired of watching everyone's feed

Think it's time to say
Bye, bye
This one last time, too late
Not gonna change my mind
Get outta my way
Moving forward, no rewind, too late
No more, baby, no way
It's time to say
Bye, bye

Bye bye
This one last time, too late
Not gonna change my mind
Get outta my way
Moving forward, no rewind, too late
No more, baby, no way
It's time to say
Bye, bye

It won't be easy, no
But the world needs what you've hidden away
(Don't you hide it away)
Farewell to shame and fear

Don't wait up for the new year
Start today

Think it's time to say
Bye, bye
No more...

I think it's time to say
Bye bye
Get outta my way
It's time to say
Bye, bye

Bye, bye
Bye, bye
