

Change - Interlude

Jeremy Passion

We all want change
Just as long as we don't have to change
Everyone's at fault but us to blame
We turn away when we look in the mirror
Can't keep still
And when my reflection's flawed
I say it's not real
I close my eyes and now I see
If I want change, it starts in me
I'll just take a good look at myself and stare
Show me what I'm supposed to see
You gave me something that I never felt
I swear
Felt like an open heart surgery
You searched in me
You showed the worth in me
