

Rewind

Jeremy Passion

Cherry-flavored chapstick
Still tasted on my lips
Neon-colored bracelets
They rattle when you twist

Howling at the moonlight
It's such a wild thing, ancient babe
I used to be a Superman
And you were my Lois Lane

In my mind I often go back to a happy time
We were young and free
And life was feeling so fine
Could we press pause and just rewind?
Could we just rewind?

Remember when we ran away?
Never got too far
Didn't last a day, no
But as if that mattered at all
'Cause it was you and me
And a world of possibility

And what was money anyway?
All we knew was there was life on that highway
Pinky swore we'd see the world together
But funny how life changed

In my mind I often go back to a happy time
We were young and free
And life was feeling so fine
Could we press pause and just rewind?
Could we just rewind?

Kick back and run on the sand (In my mind)
I often go back to a happy time
We were young and free
And life was feeling so fine
Could we press pause and just rewind?
Can we just rewind?

Tell me is this cool
Is it dance or destiny?
That after all these years
You're in front of me, baby
I can't help but wonder
If you could be more than my sweetest memory

In my mind I often go back to a happy time
We were young and free
And life was feeling so fine
Could we press pause and just rewind?
Could we just rewind?

Kick back and run on the sand (In my mind)
I often go back to a happy time
We were young and free

And life was feeling so fine
Could we press pause and just rewind?
Can we just rewind?
