

The One

Jeremy Renner

Hey
Hey

50,000 feet above the clouds holding on
Praying that I'll never come down
Hey, ooh-ooh-ooh
Thinking about what we've become and who we are Doesn't even matter now
Hey, ooh-ooh-ooh

Why do I keep doing this to me (hey)
You should be you sitting next to me (ooh-ooh-ooh)
If these are the last words you hear from me (hey)
Hey, I meant every word

Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one
Heartbreak comes too easy living life on the run
Some people spend lifetime searching for someone
Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one (hey)

You deserve the world though, I hope you know
Think about you all the time
Hey, ooh-ooh-ooh
I shouldn't let you in though, and let go
I don't know how to apologize
Hey, I meant every word

Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one
Heartbreak comes too easy living life on the run
Some people spend lifetime searching for someone
Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one

Hey, when you find the one
Hey, when you find the one

Falling free, falling free now
Falling free, falling free now
Falling free, falling free now
Gravity can't keep me down

Falling free, falling free now
Falling free, falling free now
Falling free, falling free now
Gravity can't keep me down

Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one
Heartbreak comes too easy living life on the run
Some people spend lifetime searching for someone
Goodbye don't come easy when you find the one

Hey, when you find the one
Hey, when you find the one
Hey, when you find the one
Hey, when you find the one
