Acquitted

Jeremy Riddle

History split by sacrifice
God's perfect Son gave up his life
To ransom back the lost and damned
Paying the price, justice demands

As He was broken, heaven was opened
Our judgment lifted, our sins acquitted
His loving kindness freely invites us
Into the realms of grace

Sing a new song
Sing of His goodness, sing of His goodness
Sing of His wonderful love

True love was shown, true love defined
As He was scorned and crucified
He tore the veil, bridged the divide
Taking us from darkness to light

As He was broken, heaven was opened
Our judgment lifted, our sins acquitted
His loving kindness freely invites us
Into the realms of grace

Sing a new song
Sing of His goodness, sing of His goodness
Sing of His wonderful love

Sing a new song
Sing of His goodness, sing of His faithfulness
Sing a new song to the Lord

Lift up your voices with all creation
Declare His goodness to every nation
Release the anthem of heaven here on earth
