

It Only Gets Stronger

Jeremy Riddle

I'm standing on the edge again
I feel Your breath coming on the wind
And nothing's clear, but I can hear
The sound of Your voice

It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My head's underwater, but somehow I
Can finally breathe

It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My head's underwater, but somehow I
Can finally breathe
It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My heart is on fire, and this love is
Setting me free

I've nothing but these empty hands
But with You I have everything
How can I lose, as long as You
Are the love holding onto me

It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My head's underwater, but somehow I
Can finally breathe
It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My heart is on fire, and this love is
Setting me free

And all these years and all my fears
Are lost in these tears that I cry to You
And all this pain, all my hiding and all my shame
Are drowned in these waves of endless truth and
All these lies, that have kept me blind
Disappear as I'm beholding You
Knowing all my days, I will see Your face
And nothing can erase this love

It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My head's underwater, but somehow I
Can finally breathe
It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My heart is on fire, and this love is
Setting me free

It only gets stronger
It only goes deeper
My head's underwater, but somehow I
