

Ghosted

Jeremy Shada

Echoes of you in the halls
I can almost hear you breathe
Pictures of you on the walls
I feel your eyes following me

Your presence lingers, even though you're not around
My skin starts to shiver, there's creeks in the house
The lights start to flicker, the candles blow out
Baby I'm losing it now

You left me high and dry
Ooo she's a run away
Ghost in the night
Gone without a trace
Can't believe my eyes
Baby walking through walls
How many lovers have ya left for dead
How long will the ghost of you
Haunt this bed

All I wanted
Was you you you
Now I'm ghosted
By you you you

Where are you tonight
I'm getting static on the phone
Are you with some other guy
Haunting another pour soul

Is he falling like I did, caught up in your spell
Another heart for your collection, do you keep them on a shelf?
Before they know you're gone, You're on to someone else
Love 'em and leave 'em babe you do it so well

You left me high and dry
Ooo she's a run away
Ghost in the night
Gone without a trace
Can't believe my eyes
Baby walking through walls
How many lovers have ya left for dead
How long will the ghost of you
Haunt this bed

Was it all make believe
Were you ever even there
Your touch was a dream
Your absence a nightmare

You left me high and dry
Ooo she's a run away
Ghost in the night
Gone without a trace

How long will the ghost of you
Haunt this bed

All I wanted
Was you you you
Now I'm ghosted
By you you you
