

This Ain't It

Jeremy Shada

I spy with my little eye, a liar
A devil in disguise playing on my desires
They say you get burned if you play with fire
But I just sit in the flame, I'm addicted to pain

You knew I was a showing a heart now it's more like a spade
A little more dark
Love betrayed
Should've known from the start that
It was all a game
You've been bluffing
And I've been played

Baby this ain't it
Your lips are poisonous
Baby this ain't it
This ain't love
Baby this ain't it
Your touch is toxic
Baby this ain't it
This ain't love

There's only ever one thing on your mind
You're looking for a fight, or another sleepless night
Your curtains always closed, you're a vampire
You sunk in your teeth
But I only got so much blood to bleed

Baby this ain't it
Your lips are poisonous
Baby this ain't it
This ain't love
Baby this ain't it
Your touch is toxic
Baby this ain't it
This ain't love

Baby you're dangerous, oh you're so dangerous
The damage already done can't get away from us
Baby you're dangerous, oh you're so dangerous
Now All I feel is numb
This was never love

You knew I was a showing a heart now it's more like a spade
A little more dark
Love betrayed
Should've known from the start that
It was all a bust
Vintage love
Replaced by lust

Baby this ain't it
Baby this ain't it
This ain't love
Baby this ain't it
Your touch is toxic

Baby this ain't it
This ain't love

Baby this ain't it
(Baby you're dangerous, oh you're so dangerous)
Baby this ain't it
(The damage already done can't get away from us)
Baby this ain't it
(Baby you're dangerous, oh you're so dangerous)
Baby this ain't it
(Now All I feel is numb
This was never love)
